By Appointment.

Junction of Findhorn and Divie. The Findhorn is a river of three shires—Inverness, Nairn and Elgin—and its tributary, the Divie, is a rivulet of two parishes, Cromdale and Edinkillie, both in Elginshire. The junction takes place near Relugas, a mansion in Edinkillie parish. It is a notable scene, for in less than thirteen miles the Divie steals the reputation of its parent for beauty and caprice.
